Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 348 pages. The author Wan-Jiung Hu(born1973) is a MD (National Taiwan University) and PhD (Johns Hopkins University). This book contains theories of everything in physics, chemistry, biology, geosciences, economics, and mathematics. Spinnity is a force to drag spacetime to rotate around central mass. Impellity isa force to drag spacetime to move along with the mass. Momentity is the combined term of spinnity and impellity. Rest mass produces gravity, moving mass produces momentity; rest charge produces electricity, moving charge produces magnetism. Lightity is dark energy. Photon emitted from galaxy expands the universe acceleratedly via radiation pressure. General relativity suggests mass induces spacetime curvature; charge relativity suggests charge induces spacetime torsion(vortex). There is no dark matter, and spiral galaxies (vortex-shaped) are formed due to charge relativity which replaces quantum electrodynamics. Integrating general relativity, charge relativity, and radiation tensor, we get Grand Unified Field Theory. We can also deduct the birth and end of universe. Integrating gravitospinnity and electromagnetism, we deduct a determinative atom model and chemical bond theory replacing quantum mechanics. In addition, I propose a new chemical bond theory according to the new atom model. Homochirality is due to...
