First, the farm bill directed AMS to consider a national research and promotion program for honey packers and importers. AMS received a proposal for this packers and importers program and conducted a referendum on that pro-posal from April 2 - 16, 2008. In the referendum, 78 percent of those voting, representing 92 percent of the volume of those voting in the referendum, approved the program. The program become effective on May 22, 2008, 1 day after the final rule was published in the Federal Register. The first board meeting took place on Sep-tember 4, 2008. With the approval of this new program, the collection of assess-ments under the Honey Research, Promotion and Consumer Information Order - au-thorized under the Honey Research, Promotion and Consumer Information Act - was suspended. A termination order for that program was published in the Federal Reg-ister on April 17, 2009. The second major requirement under Sec....
