

The Pope's Bookbinder: A Memoir (Hardback)

By David Mason

BIBLIOASIS, Canada, 2013. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 218 x 146 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Entertaining, moving, informative, intelligently hopeful: I know of few other books like this one to warm the cockles of a booklover's heart. -- Alberto Manguel For anyone who loves books too well--who lusts after them, lives in them, mainlines them--David Mason's memoir will be a fix from heaven. Heartful, cantankerous, droll, his tales of honour and obsession in the trade gratify the very book-love they portray. An irresistible read. --Dennis Lee An atmospheric, informative memoir by a Canadian seller of used and rare books. Gossipy, rambling and enchanting, alive with Mason's love for books of every variety. --Kirkus Reviews From his drug-hazy, book-happy years near the Beat Hotel in Paris and throughout his career as antiquarian book dealer, David Mason brings us a storied life. He discovers his love of literature in a bathtub at age eleven, thumbing through stacks of lurid Signet paperbacks. At fifteen he's expelled from school. For the next decade and a half, he will work odd jobs, buck all authority, buy books more often than food, and float around Europe. He'll help gild a...
