Excerpt: .Lay-Catholicks; and if you pity them not for the good of their Salvation, all other pretended Favours light upon them like Mildews, which are not a fruitful but a satal Moisture. You need not be told, that the use of the Sacraments is the Vital part of the Christian Religion in our Catholick Apprehension. Who shall celebrate them? Who shall impart them to the People, robbed of Christ, if the Priests, the Dispensers of these great Mysteries, be kept from them? You say, that you have done well for the Generality of Catholicks, that they have Liberty of Conscience. I say your Gift is useless, if you permit them not Teachers, who are set over their Consciences. We are more clement to the Churches of HugQitots, and allow them their Ministers. Without that Favour a Rush for all the rest. Should I fend Cloth...
